

A Weekend of Traditional Appalachian Mountain Circle and Square Dancing
with Top Notch Callers and Bands

Phil Jamison (Asheville, NC)

A nationally-known dance caller and scholar, old-time musician and flatfoot dancer, Phil has called dances, performed, and taught at music festivals and dance events throughout the U.S. and overseas since the early 1970s, including more than thirty-five years as a member of the Green Grass Cloggers. As Georgy-Alabam's first featured caller he set the tone of the weekend with its focus on fun, accessible traditional dances.

Scott Russell (Atlanta)

Scott possesses a trove of great old-time dances and teaches them with clarity, brevity, and wit. For the past 40 years he has danced, called, collected, and played for American, Canadian, Irish, and English dances. As a founder of Georgy-Alabam he's been a crucial part of all our good times.

The Red Mountain Yellowhammers
(Birmingham)

Georgy-Alabam's host band is distinctively raucous, exuberant and may be infectious! They love to dance and if they could do it and play at the same time, they'd be in a square with you.

Mountain Yanny Band (Birmingham)

Headed by fiddler Charlie Hunter, the Yannies are talented millennials whose old-time music is just like it's supposed to be for high-spirited dancing.

The Hick Hoppers (Atlanta)

When you hear the Hoppers you'll swear you've time-travelled to the 1920's and are dancing to Gid Tanner, Riley Puckett and the Skillet Lickers.

❧ LODGING ❧

You are responsible for your own lodging.

The park offers reasonably priced hotel rooms, cabins, chalets and campgrounds near Bald Rock Lodge. Check out the options at www.alapark.com/cheaharesort, then call 256-488-5115 or e-mail cheaha.groupres@dcnr.alabama.gov to make reservations. Be sure to say you are attending Georgy-Alabama and give our group number 1984.

Cheaha State Park is holding hotel rooms, cabins and chalets until November 30 for our group. After that date lodging may not be available, so reserve before November 30.

Communal floor space is available in Bald Rock Lodge for $20 for the weekend and is arranged through Jim Cauthen (see his contact info to the right).

❧ MEALS ❧

Included in your registration fee are ample breakfasts Saturday and Sunday mornings and after-dance snacks throughout the weekend. Friday supper and all lunches are on your own. You may use the kitchen in the lodge for food preparation and there is a restaurant in the park. We share a potluck meal on Saturday night. Please bring a dish to share.
